British–Polish violinist Michał Ćwiżewicz has performed across Europe, the Middle East and the USA, with broadcasts on BBC Television and Radio and Polish national television. He appears regularly with the Cwizewicz Brothers violin duo and directs the Ognisko Chamber Ensemble. For ten years he was violinist of the Minerva Piano Trio, recording the acclaimed album Dance!.

A sought-after teacher, Michał is a violin professor at the Royal College of Music and Head of Strings at Uppingham School. Numerous prizes enabled his studies at the Royal College of Music, Guildhall School of Music and Drama, the Paris Conservatoire and the Escuela Superior de Música Reina Sofía in Madrid. He also holds a Master's degree in Aeronautical Engineering from Imperial College London.

He has performed for HM King Charles III and was presented to Queen Elizabeth II at Buckingham Palace's Young Artists' Reception.

Alongside classical repertoire, Michał has a longstanding interest in the folk music of Eastern Europe, particularly that of the Carpathian Mountains, which he has played since childhood after learning from the Podhale violinists Eugenius Wilczek and Władysław Trebunia-Tutka.
